

INSTRUCTOR: Tim Trott (FDLE Cert #329775)
EMAIL: Class@TheDroneProfessor.com
PHONE: (850) 579-0795

Impact and Implications for Florida 934.50 “Freedom from Surveillance” Act

Course Overview

The purpose of this course is to explore the content and context of Florida Statute §934.50, known as the “Freedom from Unwarranted Surveillance Act”. This course is available as online video training (approx __ minutes) and can be provided for on-site presentation.

This course will cover the following topics:

This course will explore what the statute says and what various people have said about it. The course will examine the context in which it was created as well as some of the implications for law enforcement and the general public with respect to the operation of small Unmanned Aircraft within the State of Florida

Course Objective

On completion of this course the student should have a better understanding of the origins and history of the statute. The purpose of this course is to explore the content and context of FS §934.50

We will explore what the statute says and what various people have said about it. We will examine the context in which it was created and some of the implications on law enforcement and the general public with regard to the operation of Unmanned Aircraft within the State of Florida.

Please note: this is not a legal discussion and nothing in this course is to be construed as legal advice.

Required Material

There are no specific materials required for this course. However, it is always recommended that the participant have available a copy of the FAR/AIM, specifically in regard to sections 91 and 1078.

Additional Class Requirements:

None

ADDITIONAL CLASSROOM MATERIAL

The following materials are provided as download resources for this class:

- Florida Statute §934.50
- FAA State and Local Regulation of Unmanned Aircraft Systems (UAS) Fact Sheet

Online Resources

- www.faa.gov/uas
- www.TheDroneProfessor.com/classes

